

Rousseaceae is a small family in four genera with around fourteen species. Fruit is a berry or capsule. Leaves are simple with toothed margins and without stipules. Genera in this group are found in Mauritius, Australia, New Guinea and New Zealand.